This collection of essays poses a series of questions revolving around nonsense, cacophony, queerness, race, and the dancing body. How can flamenco, as a diasporic complex of performance and communities of practice, frictionally and critically bound to the complexities of Spanish history, illuminate theories of race and identity in performance? How can we posit and argue for genealogical relationships within and between genres across the vast expanses of the African and Roma diaspora? Neither are the essays presented here limited to flamenco, nor consequently are the responses to these questions reduced to this topic. What all the contributions here do share is the wish to come together across disciplines and subject areas within the academy and without, in the whirling, raucous, and messy spaces where the body is free to celebrate its questioning as well as the depths of the wisdom and knowledge it holds and sometimes reveals.
