Fraud 2002-05-28 from this american life alum david rakoff comes a hilarious collection that single handedly raises self deprecation to an art form whether impersonating sigmund freud in a department store window during the holidays climbing an icy mountain in cheap loafers or learning primitive survival skills in the wilds of new jersey rakoff clearly demonstrates how he doesn't belong nor does he try to in his debut collection of essays rakoff uses his razor sharp wit and snarky humor to deliver a barrage of damaging blows that more often than not land squarely on his own jaw hilariously satirizing the writer not the subject joining the wry and the heartfelt fraud offers an object lesson in not taking life or ourselves too seriously

Half Empty 2010-09-21 in this deeply smart and sneakily poignant collection of essays the bestselling author of fraud and don't get too comfortable makes an inspired case for always assuming the worst because then you'll never be disappointed whether he's taking on pop culture phenomena with oscar wilde worthy wit or dealing with personal tragedy rakoff's sharp observations and humorist's flair for the absurd will have you positively reveling in the untapped power of negativity

Don't Get Too Comfortable 2005-09-20 a biting funny grand tour of our culture of excess from an award winning humorist whether david rakoff is contrasting the elegance of one of the last flights of the supersonic concorde with the good times and chicken wings populism of hooters air working as a cabana boy at a south beach hotel or traveling to a private island off the coast of belize to watch a soft core video shoot where he is provided with his very own personal manservant rarely have greed vanity selfishness and vapidty been so mercilessly skewered somewhere along the line our healthy self regard has exploded into obliterating narcissism our manic getting and spending have now become celebrated as moral virtues simultaneously a wildean satire and a plea for a little human decency don't get too comfortable shows that far from being bobos in paradise we're in a special circle of gilded age hell this edition includes an excerpt from david rakoff's love dishonor marry die cherish perish

The Uncollected David Rakoff 2015-10-27 bestselling and thurber prize winning humorist david rakoff was one of the most original delightfully acerbic voices of his generation here in one place is the best of his previously uncollected material most never before published in book form david rakoff's singular personality spills from every page of this witty and entertaining volume which includes travel features early fiction works pop culture criticism and transcripts of his most memorable appearances on public radio's fresh air and this american life these writings chart his transformation from fish out of water meekly arriving for college in 1982 to a proud new yorker bluntly opining on how to walk properly in the city they show his unparalleled ability to capture the pleasures of solitary pursuits like cooking and crafting especially in times of trouble as well as the ups and downs in the life span of a friendship whether it is a real relationship or an imaginary correspondence between gregor samsa and dr seuss co authored with jonathan goldstein also included is his novel in verse love dishonor marry die cherish perish by turns hilarious incisive and deeply moving this collection highlights the many facets of rakoff's huge talent and shows the arc of his remarkable career with a foreword by paul rudnick

Fraud 2002-04-23 a frequent contributor to the new york times magazine outside salon and qq and a regular on public radio international's this american life david rakoff's debut collection of essays is simultaneously laugh out loud funny and take your breath away poignant david rakoff is a fish out of water whether he finds himself on assignment climbing mount monadnock in new hampshire donning a pair of timberlands for his trek only to realize with horror that the shoes he wouldn't be caught dead in might actually turn out to be the shoes he is caught dead in sitting quietly impersonating sigmund freud in a department store window for a month or musing on the unique predicament of being undetectably canadian in new york city what's more spicy than being canadian i ask you rakoff has a gift for exposing life s humour and pathos fraud takes us places even we didn t know we wanted to go expeditions as varied as a search for elves in iceland a foray into soap opera acting or contemplating the gin soaked olive at the bottom of a martini glass with the sharpest of eyes david rakoff explores the odd and ordinary events of life spotting what is unique funny and absurd in the world around him but for all its razor sharp wit and snarky humor fraud is also ultimately an object lesson in not taking life or oneself too seriously
