excerpt from the foundations of education the foundations of teaching are not to be sought absolutely complete in any school curriculum or in any series of directions to school teachers there are many important matters both in teaching and in schooling which lie outside the printed schedules for teachers and the textbooks for students not only do they lie outside but they lie deeper they are matters fundamental and yet they hardly can be stated in official directions much less classified still the neglect of them as if they were side issues is quite largely responsible for many of the weaknesses in our educational product the purpose of this book is mainly to impress upon both the teacher and the parent the grave importance of certain of these matters as foundations of teaching no one will claim that we have yet attained perfection either in method or result we spend vast sums of money we claim the devotion of a great army of men and women in the schoolroom great minds are bestowing their very best thought and no one would withhold a particle of this treasure this consecration this energy yet we are confronted with evils which education has not eliminated and faults in our national character which seem rather to grow than abate it were presumptuous of me to propose a panacea for all our educational ills about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
