The Earthmover Encyclopedia

2007 ailc is an annual case law reporter that provides the full text of u s court opinions involving international law issues the courts covered include all u s federal district courts federal appellate courts and the u s supreme court as well as some state courts the u s court of claims the u s court of international trade and the u s tax court the series seeks to provide not every single case in which a court refers to international law but rather all cases that analyze at least one international law issue in depth the list of subjects addressed by these volumes is vast and changes from year to year with the inclusion and prominence of most topics turning on their prevalence in a given year's jurisprudence. Some consistently prominent topics are personal jurisdiction over foreign defendants, deportation procedure, and double taxation. Over the last three editions (2006, 2007, and 2008), many topics have developed rapidly and constitute a correspondingly larger portion of the volumes. Particularly, terrorism, the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, forum non conveniens, and an entirely new added topic, the national security exception to deportation eligibility, are featured in the 2008 edition of AILC. Also featured are expanded sections on family law and on the detention of terrorist suspects. The U.S. war on terror and the crisis at Guantanamo have made that last topic a significant and dynamic component of AILC. Each edition of AILC also comes framed with two practical resources for students and scholars: the first is an introductory editor's note that both reviews international law's major developments for the given year and explains to readers how to use the volumes; the second is a subject index to allow for targeted research.

The cases in Volume Three of AILC cover procedural aspects including jurisdictional questions, forum non conveniens, choice of law, and discovery. The issue in Capital Ventures International v. Republic of Argentina was whether the Republic of Argentina explicitly waived its sovereign immunity from suit in the United States as to claims relating to bonds issued by Argentina under German law. The court found that there was subject matter jurisdiction over the claims relating to the German bonds because Argentina explicitly waived its sovereign immunity to suit in United States courts on those claims in Agua Lenders Recovery Group LLC v. Suez SA. In Sociedad General de Aguas de Barcelona SA v. Agua y Saneamientos Argentinos SA, the issue was whether, for the purposes of the doctrine of forum non conveniens, a non-signatory to an agreement may be bound by a forum selection clause and forum non conveniens waiver contained in contracts entered into by an entity alleged to be a predecessor in interest the court held that such a non signatory may be bound the papers collected in this volume span a 35 year period of active involvement in the reaffirmation and development of international humanitarian law a process under that name started in 1971 and ended in 1977 with the adoption of two protocols additional to the geneva conventions of 1949 one for international and one for internal armed conflicts subsequent developments brought a narrowing of this gap between international and internal armed conflicts as well as growing recognition of the interplay between the law of armed conflict and human rights the rediscovery of individual criminal liability for violations of international humanitarian law the introduction of further prohibitions or restrictions on the use of specified weapons and so on in contrast with these positive developments the period was negatively characterised by increasing disrespect not only for some or other minor rule such as what to do with cash taken from a prisoner of war at the time of his capture but for the very principles underlying the entire body of the law of armed conflict respect for the other as a human being and hence humane treatment of prisoners of war and other detainees protection of civilians throughout the period the author s activities ranged from participation in lawmaking and law interpreting exercises through attempts at explaining the law of armed conflict in its historical context and making propaganda for its faithful implementation to critical or even bewildered observance of actual events the papers brought together here reflect these diverse angles
