hawken trent so polite so sweet such an upstanding young man a virgin too i hear he never gets naughty with a girl probably because jesus told him not to and now here he is trying to be the hero by protecting another girl from me he calls me a bully irrational unreasonable a criminal he can call me anything he wants i've heard worse and he can try to stand between me and my money but he's never had to fight for food that rich clean school boy doesn't have what it takes i surprised her you should've seen her face just because i don't have a record honey doesn't mean i'm clean it just means i'm better at not getting caught that is until i realize i might've actually gone too far this time she's there i'm there the scene of the crime it's dark the police show up we have no choice we run down high street into quinn's bake shop and i pull her through the entrance to the old speakeasy that everyone forgot was here decades ago the door locks the cops circle the building never knowing we're right here and i'm hidden in plain sight indefinitely with someone's who's awful mean rough dirty a thief a delinquent until one night lost in all of these rooms together i don't see any of those things anymore she's smart daring soft hot everything's changing it's this place it does something to people we have a silly urban legend in shelburne falls about mirrors they're a gateway don't lean back into them but we came through front first i don't care what the county records say this was never a speakeasy it's carnival tower
