according to some commentators forum shopping is an evil that must be eradicated it has been suggested that the unification of substantive law through international conventions constitutes one way to achieve this outcome this book shows that the drafting of uniform substantive law convention cannot prevent forum shopping the reasons are classified into two main categories convention extrinsic and convention intrinsic reasons the former category comprises those reasons upon which uniform substantive law conventions do not have an impact at all these reasons range from the costs of access to justice to the bias of potential adjudicators to the enforceability of judgments the convention intrinsic reasons on the other hand are reasons that relate to the nature and design of uniform substantive law conventions and include their limited substantive and international spheres of application as well as their limited scope of application the need to provide for reservations etc this book also focuses on another reason why forum shopping cannot be overcome the impossibility of ensuring uniform applications and interpretations of the various uniform substantive law conventions
